2012 LOADING DOCK
PERMIT APPLICATION

The Columbus Regional Airport Authority requires certain users of the loading dock to obtain a permit. The 2012 loading dock permit fee is $1,100.00 which includes all approved vehicles and drivers for the company. This permit allows approved vehicles access to the loading docks and north pad of arrivals. Vehicle inspections are mandatory for all vehicles for each and every trip to the airport. Loading dock rules and regulations are subject to change at the Columbus Regional Airport Authority's discretion. Regulation changes will be posted on the north loading dock bulletin board. Included in this application, are two (2) forms and instructions for each form are listed below.

- The first form titled "LD Company and Supervisor Form" must be submitted by each company. One form per company is required.
- The second form titled "Courier Permit Form" must be submitted by each driver of each courier company. The supervisor's signature is required, in addition to two (2) color passport photos in order to obtain their individual permit.
- Any company filing for a permit after January 31, 2012, will be charged a prorated fee of $91.50 per month for the remainder of the year. This prorated fee will be applicable only if the company has not utilized the loading dock previous to filing the application. The prorated fee will include all months remaining in the year; no permits will be accepted for select months of the year.
- A $5.00 reissue fee will be assessed for any lost permits up to one reissued permit.
- Upon notification of the 2012 permit approval, drivers for each courier company may apply in person for their individual permit.

GROUND TRANSPORTATION LOADING DOCK PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES

Pursuant to the Columbus Regional Airport Authority Traffic and Parking Rules, Section 06.15 “the Ground Transportation section may develop and publish procedures and guidelines for the effective and efficient use of designated commercial vehicle areas throughout the Airport and within the commercial vehicle areas.” The Authority hopes to form a working partnership with couriers, vendors, and contractor companies in adhering to the procedures and guidelines to be followed when using the Loading Dock. It is imperative to maintain these procedures and guidelines to ensure an orderly and expeditious flow of vehicle and pedestrian traffic.

Rules for the use of the Port Columbus International Airport Loading Dock:

- Vehicles over 12' 6" are prohibited
- Vehicle must be inspected before it is left unattended.
- Vehicles must be marked with the company name, and or logo. Unmarked vehicles must display a placard in the windshield at all times.
- Drivers should use the courtesy phone to contact Airport Tenants upon arrival so deliveries may be retrieved in an expeditious manner.
- Deliveries, baggage and small freight items must not be left unattended on the dock and may be confiscated by the Public Safety or Ground Transportation Division.
- Drivers are not permitted in restricted areas without a proper ID and/or escort.
- All contractors and couriers must pay the appropriate fees, obtain and display a permit at all times.
- Use of the Loading Dock or other designated areas by Contractors is restricted to loading and unloading of tools and supplies only.
- Loading Dock permits are issued to each individual driver or by the Ground Transportation Office and cannot be used by any person other than to whom the permit was issued.
- Smaller delivery vehicles must utilize the parking provided along the south wall of the loading dock area, and leave the spaces against the dock for the larger delivery trucks.

Lost or stolen Courier/Contractor permits must be reported to the Ground Transportation Office immediately and can only be re-issued with a notarized statement from the individual stating the circumstances of the lost or stolen permit. A $5.00 re-issue fee must be paid to the Columbus Airport Authority Administration office located on the south end of the Baggage Claim office, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Permits will not be re-issued without a receipt from the receptionist.

PENALTIES

- Non-permitted courier companies and their drivers are subject to citation issuance and or motor vehicle impound at the operator's expense.
- Vehicles blocking the trash dumpsters are subject to citations and/or vehicle removal at the operator's expense.
- Courier and Contractor Loading Dock Permits are to be utilized for Official Company Business Only. Failure to do so will result in the immediate revocation of said permit indefinitely.
- Permits must be displayed at all times. Failure to do so will result in Notice of Violation issuance and motor vehicle impound.

These penalties apply only for Ground Transportation Guidelines as authorized by the Traffic and Parking Rules, which provide appeal procedures for all infractions.

However, other enforcement actions can be pursued thru the use of Federal, State and local laws and regulations, which may have additional penalties and separate and distinct appeal procedures.
